THE 2025 WESTERN DRESSAGE WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

President of WDAA
CINDY BUTLER

Welcome to the best show of the year!

Though 2025 marks WDAA's 15th Anniversary, this will be the 13th World Show we have hosted.

The first World Show was held in 2013. There were 27 classes offered over two days. Only Intro through Level 2 tests two and four were offered. The show was managed by the Pinto Horse Association of America and held in conjunction with the Colorbred Congress in Tulsa, Oklahoma. There was one judge. Ribbons were awarded through sixth place with jackets for class winners only if there were at least five riders in the class. Class entry fees were $100 each. There were not separate classes for gaited horses, but Open, Amateur and Youth Divisions were offered along with high point prizes per division.

We have come a long way since then! However, I'm proud that we have not lost the welcoming atmosphere and the magic that comes with finding your tribe at the World Show. I also love that we have held strong to our mission to honor the horse and our Western heritage by creating a community of like-minded individuals and providing a training system and educational programs for Western riders.

Enjoy your time here at the Lazy E and take the time to meet everyone around you. Our exhibitors will amaze you with their fabulous stories of courage and perseverance on their journeys to this show. You will fall in love a hundred times if you talk to that many people while you're here. Soak it all in! Cheer for horses and riders. Shop with the vendors. Attend the parties and award ceremonies. Live your best life with your best equine friend.

To the riders, I wish you good luck and your best ever performances! Enjoy the Journey!

Welcome to the Annual WDAA World Championship Show!

I'm excited to be back as your show manager for the third year, and it's my absolute pleasure to welcome you all to the Lazy E Arena. We've gathered a top-notch team of judges, scribes, and staff who are ready to keep things running smoothly—and we're all here to support the incredible rides ahead.

Western Dressage continues to grow and shine, and it's inspiring to see so many talented riders and a wonderful variety of breeds come together here in Guthrie. Whether this is your first World Show or you're a returning competitor, I look forward to meeting you—and cheering you on!

Wishing everyone a fantastic week full of great rides, good friends, and lasting memories. Let's make this one of our best championships yet!

Show Manager
JIM PORCHER

Show Coordinator
VIVIEN VAN BUREN

WDAA State Affiliates

Affiliates are the educational partners for a geographical area and provide great value to both WDAA and individuals seeking to participate in Western Dressage. There are currently 23 states and 1 province represented in the state affiliate program: Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Massachusetts/New England, Michigan, Nevada, North Carolina, Ohio, Pacific Northwest (Alaska, British Columbia, Washington, Oregon and Idaho), Pennsylvania, Virginia and Wisconsin. This has become a very successful way to build a Western Dressage community through education, activities and shows in several different areas in the country. WDAA now has a State Affiliate Council comprised of at least one member from each affiliate, a staff member and WDAA board member Tami Steinbrecher. We all work as a team to assist in affiliates' promotional efforts, answer questions, exchange ideas and any other way that provides guidance or assistance. Check out our State Affiliate page on the WDAA website to see if your state has a program! Anyone interested in starting an affiliate in your state should contact WDAA at info@westerndressageassociation.org

Meet The Judges

JOANNE COY, MI

Joanne is a USDF Bronze Medalist, USDF L Graduate, and USEF Western Dressage "R" Judge. She serves on the Boards of WDAMI, USDF Region 2 GMO Glass-Ed, and WDAA, where she is Judge Education Chair. She judged the WDAA World Show in 2019 and the Online International Show, and co-instructs the Group Apprentice class at the World Show as well as the annual Judge Training Seminar in Denver.

Her background spans endurance, competitive trail, harness racing, mounted orienteering, Western and English pleasure, trick training, and both English and Western Dressage. She also teaches clinics and lessons, helping riders build true partnership with their horses.

Joanne states, "I haven't met a horse yet, no matter what breed, who hasn't benefited from the pyramid of training or the 'training wheel.' Following those elements will always make a horse better, happier, and correct so that he can live a long, healthy life."

CYNTHIA GANEM, AZ

My fever for horses began at age ten after moving from Texas to Arizona. With my Quarter Horse, Star, I started riding Western and enjoyed Gymkhana, barrel racing, team penning, and local parades. After pausing for college and family, I returned to riding at 35 through 3-day Eventing, later shifting to Dressage. My love of horses led me to further my education in judging Classical Dressage and ultimately becoming a Western Dressage "R" Judge.

I own two Andalusian geldings: one, 16, training at 4th Level; the other, 20, a Grand Prix and Working Equitation Master. I currently compete at Prix St. George with Miguel and train my younger horse in Western Dressage and Working Equitation.

I stay active in classical and western judging, including the WDAA World Competition (2021, 2025), the WDAA Online, and the 2024 WDAA Online International Challenge. I also serve as a clinician for "Ride-A-Test" programs.

As judge, competitor, rider, and spectator, I deeply value the hard work, sacrifice, and joy that horses bring to our lives.

ANN JUDGE, CO

Ann Judge is a Purdue University graduate and owner of Judge's Choice Training Center.

Ann holds judges cards in USEF Western Dressage, Arabian, Morgan, and Western; PTHA; American Miniature Horse Assoc.; and NRCHA.

It is Ann's honor to be judging her first WDAA World Show. She has also judged the Arabian Nationals 10 times, the Pinto World Championships seven times, the Miniature Horse World six times, and the Morgan Grand National. When not judging or training, Ann is proud to advocate for horse lovers everywhere as she rides "Thunder," the NFL Denver Broncos Mascot, at all home games.

Good luck to all exhibitors!

LILLIAN EVANIEW-PHELAN, WA

I am pleased to be one of your 2025 WDAA World Championship Show Judges. Thankful to be returning to Oklahoma to judge the WDAA World Championship Show for the fourth time.

In my 40 years as an exhibitor competing at many Breed, AQHA, USDF shows as well as, two WDAA World Championship Shows in 2014 and 2015 at the highest level, it only seemed logical to obtain my WDAA Judges card in 2016.

I hold 12 other Breed and Judges Cards, EC Competition Coach License, AQHA Professional Horsemen & Clinician.

Also, I currently compete in USDF Dressage and AQHA Ranch competitions.

Good luck to the exhibitors!

JOANN WILLIAMS, WI

Joann Williams has been a multi-discipline trainer since 1980, specializing in Western Dressage and Dressage. She holds two USEF "R" judging licenses, Western Dressage and Welsh Pony and Cob. Joann has judged the 2023 WDAA OIC, numerous live shows and even more online shows.

As an active competitor in Western Dressage, she has trained many horses up the levels, earning division Championships in levels 2, 3, 4, and 5, and high score of show awards. She is also a USDF Diamond award recipient.

"I enjoy judging the variety of horses in Western Dressage and helping to guide riders on their Journey."

Meet The Stewards

DENEBO THOMPSON

Deneb Thompson is an accomplished equestrian, celebrated for her success with Arabians and Half-Arabians. She has earned a Sport Horse National Top Ten title in Western Dressage and secured multiple other victories at prestigious events, including the U.S. Nationals, Mid Summer Nationals, and Canadian Nationals in both performance and in-hand classes. Beyond her competitive achievements, Deneb serves as a C2 steward, bringing her expertise to officiate at numerous Western Dressage, Arabian, and Morgan shows, further contributing to the equestrian community. She is very much looking forward to the 2025 WDAA World Championships.

SCOTTIE RUTHERFORD

I've been in the horse world for 40 years, starting with a 3-year-old APHA mare I got for Christmas in 1985. A few years later, I began showing locally, and by 2002, I was competing nationally—placing 10th out of 115 in Novice Amateur Western Pleasure at the APHA World Show.

In 2014, my husband and I got our first Paso Fino, Rio. We hit the ground running: PFHA Reserve National Champions in Amateur Pleasure in 2015, then PFHA National Champions in 2016, plus PFHA

National Reserve in Amateur Trail and Top Ten Geldings.

Over the years, I've bred AQHA and APHA horses, shown across the country, and worked with PFHA, AQHA, APHA, ApHC, and Racking Horses. Horses have been my life—and I wouldn't have it any other way.
